Aaaaaaaa Numb. 4373.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, October 29. 1715.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Nov. 1.

THE Declaration requiring all the Clergy to accept the Conſtitution Unigenitus, which the late King of France would have cauſed to have been regiſtred in the Parliament of Paris in Auguſt laſt, intending to have come thither in Perſon for that Purpoſe, but was prevented by Sickneſs.

WE have always looked upon the Maintainance of the Purity of the Faith in our Dominions, as the moſt eſſential of our Duties, and we had the greateſt Conſolation when it pleaſed the Divine Providence to give ſome Succeſs to our Zeal and our good Intentions.

The Judgment we demanded of the Holy See, to put a Stop to the Diſputes that were raiſed on Occaſion of the Book of Moral Reflections, which his Holineſs granted to the preſſing Neceſſities of our Kingdom by the Bull Unigenitus, was acepted in the Month of February 1714, by a numerous Aſſembly of Cardinals Archbiſhops and Biſhops, who attended us on Affairs of their Dioceſes, and had been called together to that purpoſe by our Orders given out in the Month of October preceeding. In Conſequence of their Acceptation, and agreeably to what had been practiced in like Caſes, we gave our Letters Patents to cauſe the ſaid Bull to be regiſtred, and to cauſe it to be executed according to its Form and Tenor in all the Countries and Lands of our Dominions.

The Suffrages of an Aſſembly, whoſe Deciſions deſerve ſo much Reſpect, have been followed not only by thoſe of almoſt all the Biſhops of France, but alſo by the Conſent of all the Catholick Biſhops; and it ſeems as if God had been willing to give a peculiar Luſtre to the Apoſtolick Deciſion, by inſpiring divers Biſhops in all parts of Europe to accept the Conſtitution, not ſimply only by a tacite acquieſcence, as was done with reſpect to the Bulls againſt Bajus and Molinus, but by Authentick and Solemn Acts.

In this general concurrence of Paſtors united to their Chief, our Joy would be perfect if ſome Prelates of our Kingdom did not unfortunately go out of the common Road; ſome publiſhing Mandates injurious to the Holy See and to the Clergy of France, and others refuſing to conform to the Acceptation made by the ſaid Aſſembly, and that by captious Evaſions, and upon feigned and frivolous Scruples, which tended only to ſave the Book and the Propoſitions that had been been cenſured, to render even the Bull uſeleſs, to make the Acceptation that had been made of it to be looked upon as abuſive, and thereby condemn the Conduct of the whole Body of Paſtors.

Obliged as we are to hinder Schiſm and Diviſion, to procure Peace to the Church, and to protect the holy Decrees; we ought, perhaps, from the Beginning to have prevented the Conſequences of a Conduct as prejudicial to Religion as favourable to Innovators. But hitherto we have only armed our ſelves with Patience, having always hoped that the Paternal Remonſtrances of the Vicar of Jeſus Chriſt, our Exhortations full of Goodneſs, the Example of all the Paſtors, the Authority of the Church and the Holy See, and the ſpace of two Years granted them for Reflexion, would recall at laſt thoſe that ſeperated themſelves, and that if they could not convince themſelves by their own Lights, they ſhould make their private Judgments give Way to that of the Church.

Although the Effect has not anſwered our Hopes, we cannot repent of the gentle Means we have uſed; but it is time to put Bounds to our Condeſcention, it ought not be carried too far; and we ſhould believe our ſelf guilty of the Wounds given to the Church, if we ſhould neglect to apply the Remedies preſcribed by the Canons in like Caſes for the Cure of them.

In the mean time, to follow ſtill the Motions that our Clemency inſpires, and to make the laſt Effort upon the Hearts of the Prelates, of whom we demand only a Conformity to the Body of Paſtors; we have reſolved, before leaving them to the rigor of the Canon-Law, to enjoyn them expreſly that they follow, in the Acceptation of the Bull Unigenitus, the Example that has been traced out to them of near 26 Biſhops of our Kingdom; declaring to them at the ſame time, that if they perſiſt in their Reſiſtance, we ſhall, without delay, have recourſe to the Ways marked out by Cuſtom and the Laws of the Church.

For theſe Cauſes, we Exhort, and nevertheleſs Enjoyn by theſe Preſents, all thoſe Cardinals Archbiſhops and Biſhops of France, who have not accepted, nor cauſed to be publiſhed in their Dioceſes, the Conſtitution Unigenitus, or who have received it by a pretended Acceptation, which having only the appearance of it, derogates in effect from the Conſtitution, and is ſo oppoſite from the Acceptation made by the Body of Paſtors, that if it were tolerated, it would be the inevitable ſource of a Schiſm and a Diviſion in the Epiſcopacy; to receive the ſaid Conſtitution conformably to the Act of Acceptation, which was drawn up and approved in the Aſſembly of the Cardinals Archbiſhops and Biſhops of our Kingdom, and has been followed by almoſt all the other Archbiſhops and Biſhops who did not aſſiſt in the ſaid Aſſembly; to cauſe to be read and publiſhed the ſaid Conſtitution in all the Churches of their Dioceſes, and to Regiſter it by the Greffier of their Officiality, within 15 Days after the Signification which ſhall be made to them of theſe Preſents, at the requeſt of our Procureurs-General in our Courts of Parliament, to whom we give all neceſſary Orders for making the ſaid Signification and requiſite Summons; on pain of being proceeded according to the Form preſcribed by the Holy Canons, againſt thoſe of the Cardinals Archbiſhops and Biſhops, who refuſe to accept, and cauſe to be read and publiſhed the ſaid Bull in the Time and Form abovementioned. &c.

Paris, Oct. 25. The Maquis de Torcy is departed from hence, and 'tis not known whither he is gone, but 'tis thought to Holland. Some Letters from Madrid mention, that the King of Spain, to maintain a good Correſpondence with his Allies, has reſolved to revoke the three explicatory Articles of the Treaty with England that the present Government there are so much dissatisfied with: As also that his Catholick Majesty had by one of his Ministers, Count Alberoni, told the Minister of a certain Potentate, that his Majesty will religiously observe the Treaties he has made; and with regard to the Customs of Merchandize, he will reduce them to the same State they were in the Reign of King Charles II.

From the Scot's Courant.

Edinburgh, Oct. 21. Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Coronation, the Standard was displayed in our Castle, and at Noon the great Guns we fired round. A Company of Gentlemen Voluntiers, with their proper Officers, marched from the College Yard through the City to the Abbey, and back to their Rendezvous: The Right Honourable the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and City Council, attended by a great many Nobility, Gentry, General Wightman, and some Officers, marched to the Cross with Trumpets before them, where they expressed their Loyalty to his Majesty, drinking his Health, with that of their Royal Highnesses and all the Royal Family, &c. and then returned to the Town House, where an Entertainment was prepared, and the same Healths repeated under the discharge of several Vollies of Small-shot by a Detachment of the City Guards: And the Night concluded with Illuminations and all other Demonstrations of Joy.

Last Night Brigadier Grant arrived here from the Camp, and his Regiment is expected this Day, to be quartered here for the better Defence and Security of the City.

For all Ailments of the Stomach and Impurities of the Blood, Scurvies, Dropsies, Jaundice, Rheumatick Pains, and such like Chronical Diseases, Dr. Stoughton's Great Cordial Elixir is found by the Experience of Hundreds to exceed any one Preparation in the whole World. Taken in a Morning in Gill-fuls Tea or Wine, in the want of which, Beer, or Ale, it wonderfully strengthens the Stomach, creates an Appetite, helps Digestion, keeps the Body in a due State of Health and Vigor, and prevents Infection from Contagious Air, and Diseases, as appears by Letters and Certificates from Jamaica, Sweden, &c. for which reason few go to Sea, or Travel, without it, and in most Places beyond Sea is in great Esteem, (especially where such Diseases reign,) and sells at a good Price, being room for large Profit to those Merchants who send it Abroad, as some do every Week. A particular Account of its Nature, and Virtues, you have in the Bills with it, being in French, Dutch, and Spanish, as well as English; and 'tis desired they be carefully read over and observed. 10 Hundreds have been cured of Agues, Cholicks, and Gripes, with this Elixir only, taken according to the Directions. Prepared only by the said Dr. Stoughton in Bartholomew-lane, London, he having Her late Majesty's most gracious Letters Patents for the sole making thereof.

The famous CHOLICK-WATER, Published these 21 Years, and highly esteemed of throughout Great-Britain for its giving speedy Relief in Cases of Wind in the Stomach, Wind-Cholick, Vapours of both kinds, Stitches, and Pains in the Side, Gripes, Vomitting, and Looseness, and all other Sickness, Weakness, and Indispositions of the Stomach and Bowels, as after a full Meal, Fish, or Surfeit, &c. immediately dispelling, or digesting any thing that Offends, experienced by the Author 21 Years, and used by him in his own Practice with such Success, that it hardly ever fails fully answering Expectation, is still sold at these 8 Places only, viz. Old Slaughter's Coffee-house at Charing-Cross, Richard's at Temple-Bar, Alice's at the Parliament-House, Mr. Clark, Stationer, in Birchin-lane, Mr. Bonnyworth, Bookseller, in Pater-noster-Row, Mr. Smith at the Post-Office in Russel-Street, Covent-Garden, Mr. Osborn, Stationer, near the King's-Head-Inn in the Burough of Southwark, Mrs. Wilmot, Stationer, on Fish-Streets-Hill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle. 'Tis not Purging, but a very Rich Cordial, and pleasant to take a Dram of at any time: No Family ought to be without it, for in sudden Illness it is equal to any Cordial whatever, comforting the Stomach, and cheating the Spirits.
